Detailed Itinerary:

Day 1: Manyara National Park

Pick up from Hotel and Drive to Manyara National Park with packed lunch. This small park (123 sq mi/319 sq km) in the Great Rift Valley which is famous for its tree-climbing lions (they go up in the acacia trees during the heat of the day) and thousands of pink flamingos. Thanks to the varied terrain (woodland, lakes, open grassland and groundwater forests of breadfruit and fig trees), there's a wide variety of animal life, including some 350 different species of birds. It's worth at least an overnight. Not far from the park is Mto Wa Mbu (pronounced OOM-tow-wa-OOM-boo), a village that's now home to people from many different tribes. Irrigation has turned it into an oasis; it used to be just grazing land for the cattle of the nomadic Masai people. Try some of the local banana beer.

Late afternoon drive to Ngorongoro for dinner and overnight at Ngorongoro Sopa Lodge OR Similar.

Day 2: Ngorongoro Crater Tour

After breakfast, crater tour with picnic lunch.

Descend down to the Ngorongoro Crater, one of the wonders of the natural world. An extinct volcano that collapsed some 25 million years ago thus forms a vast super bowl where the largest permanent concentration of African game is on display.

The views from the top of the crater wall are absolutely breathtaking which are forested but four wheel drive vehicles will take you down into this primeval paradise of woodland, lake, river, swamp and plain that shelters around 20,000 animals. Large grazing animals such as Wildebeests, Buffalo, Gazelles and Zebras that depend on the open grasslands in the crater. Attracting predators, the black-manned lion, the leopard and hyena. There elephants found are the lone males. The Fever Tree forests shelter monkeys, bushbuck and waterbuck and the few black rhino that have taken refuge here.

A soda lake attracts water birds, including flamingos and is a favourite place for predators to make their kill. Wildly beautiful as it is, it is not surprising that Ngorongoro Crater has been called the Garden of Eden. The game drives are done with packed lunch.

Evening drive back to Arusha or drop off at Airport.
